It seems incredible that Mr. Walker should say this, for it is absolutely untrue, and easily proven untrue. General Goff never "proclaimed his purpose to force" Mr. Walker to meet him, nor said anything that could be so construed by the most active imagination.

At Hinton Gen. Goff was advertised to speak, and the Republicans went to the expense of building a wigwam with a capacity to seat 1,500 persons. DEAR SIRS:—Appreciating the action of the State Convention as the case deserves, I feel profoundly sensible of the relations existing towards its action and doing you an injustice to further permit the case to continue as it is without notice. The same element in politics which with its mistaken views, tried to divide this Union over a quarter of a century ago, is now the author of an economic system that is as erroneous mand impracticable as the effort at a division of the Union was. I am not desirous to aid in any way such results, and feel constrained to notify you of my severance of the position as Elector of this State. this State.
